An Expensive Prisoner.

Negro Webber, who so viciously attacked Mrs. Harper is a costly prisoner to Washoe county. To date he has cost the county in the neighborhood of $150 and before his trial is completed will cost the county several hundred more. In saving him from the angry mob which threatened to lynch him the county was at an expense of $100 for a special train to Carson, where he was placed in the penitentiary.

Beside the money paid for the train the county is out a good deal for rigs used in searching for him and in paying for guns rented for guards at the county jail while he was confined there. Many people say that he will never be tried but the county officials intend to bring him back to Reno as soon as the next grand jury meets.—Journal.

Two Train Wrecks.

No. 5 west bound train was wrecked one mile east of Verdi yesterday morning five passenger cars jumped the track and went into the ditch. Fortunately no passengers were injured. All traffic was stopped and east bound passengers and mail had to be transferred.

As a result of the spreading of rails on the Carson & Colorado railroad at a point two and a half miles west of Clifton eight cars and a caboose of a freight train went into the ditch Monday morning about 9 o'clock and all traffic was delayed for several hours.

Linderman trial.

The case of the State of Nevada vs. Al. Linderman came up for trial in the District court and although the attorneys in the case examined thirty-four men, only four were retained as jurors. Two of these jurors, W. F. Sauer and George Robinson have been challenged by the attorneys for the defense for implied prejudice and will be tried on this charge as soon as the panel of jurors has been filled.—Journal.
